STAT

1. I have read, though hastily, your paper. [redacted] with great interest and profit. Most importantly I have had it carefully reviewed by [redacted] of the OIA Staff and attach a copy of his report to me.

2. Normally DD/I would not take any initiative in further distribution of studies prepared on your side of the house, but this one does seem to me to deserve fairly widespread circulation in the intelligence community and among certain of its prime constituents. If you have not already done so, I suggest that a member of your Staff consult with [redacted] of OIA as to an appropriate distribution pattern. OIA would be happy to carry out the physical dissemination.
